

Blue Heron Adventure FAQ's
September 2014

Q. Where is the Blue Heron Adventure located?

A. The Adventure begins at Whitewater Express – 1000 Bay Ave.

Q. What are the operating hours of the Blue Heron Adventure?

A. Times are on the half hour starting at 9:30am-6:30pm

Q. What does the Blue Heron Adventure consist of?

A. 1,200 ft. dual-zip across the Chattahoochee River, treetop aerial course consisting of 10 obstacles, 400 ft. treetop dual-zip along the banks of the Chattahoochee River, and a motorized Canyon Raft across the Chattahoochee River back into Columbus, Georgia.

Q. What is the Blue Heron Adventure zip line?

A. The first zip on the Blue Heron zip is 1,200 ft. long, reaching speeds up to 40mph. This zip not only connects Georgia and Alabama, it will have your feet dangling 100 ft. over the Columbus, Georgia Whitewater course. The second zip is a 400 ft. tree top zip along the banks of the Chattahoochee River in Phenix City, Alabama.

Q. What is the Blue Heron Aerial Course?

A. Soar the treetops of Phenix City, Alabama! Offering two levels of difficulty for adventure seekers ages five and up. Zip from tree to tree, crawl through a high-altitude tunnel, balance on floating beams, walk across a wobbly bridge, swing from high-hanging ropes, and climb across a roped spider web.

Q. What are the requirements?

A. Junior adventure seekers, ages five and up will be able to experience the treetop Blue Heron Aerial Course. The aerial course has a weight limit of 250lbs. Blue Heron Adventure Zip Liners are required to be 10-years-of-age or older, and at least 70lbs and no more than 250lbs.
